SECTION 5: CODE OF CONDUCT

By completing this Membership Form, all members of Bridgwater Hockey Club hereby agree to abide by club policies and guidelines and the club's codes of conduct as set out below, and that the Committee may impose sanctions at its absolute discretion as they see fit for breaches of the Code of Conduct and other club policies:

Code of Conduct – Players and Members

These general conduct guidelines are intended to make the club a positive and rewarding environment for all.

- 1) Members should show good discipline; they should not abuse verbally or physically, the umpires, the opposition, their teammates or spectators. The safety of players, umpires and spectators is the priority. Members agree to abide by England Hockey Fair Play guidelines.
- 2) Members should use social media appropriately – specifically, abuse of players, opposition, spectators or officials will not be tolerated.
- 3) Players should have the correct club kit/colours on match days.
- 4) Players should arrive at the due time.
- 5) Players should attend training wherever possible.
- 6) Players should strive to gain promotion to higher teams.
- 7) Players should: demonstrate good sportsmanship, give 'three cheers' at the end of the game, shake hands, thank umpires.

- 8) Players should never play under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- 9) Members have a responsibility for the safety of their passengers when driving other members.
- 10) Players should make their availability for at least the following week known to the captains as early as possible.
- 11) Players should pay match fees on the day of the game and subscriptions as early in the season as possible.
- 12) Players should ensure that umpires and opposition are shown back to match teas and made to feel welcome there; teas should be offered in the sequence of umpires, opposition and then home players.
- 13) Players should support social and fundraising events whenever possible.
- 14) Players may speak with the Club Captain in confidence about any grievance that they feel may have with the club.

SECTION 6: ETHNICITY and DISABILITY

Whilst it is not compulsory for the following sections to be completed, the paragraph below explains why this personal information is considered to be important.

Sport can and does play a major role in promoting the inclusion of all groups in society. However, inequalities have existed within sport particularly in relation to gender, race and disability. Sport England and England Hockey are committed to promoting and developing sports equity, which is about fairness in sport, equality of access, recognising inequalities and taking steps to address them. By monitoring the profile of people in sports clubs, national governing bodies of sport and Sport England can identify any issues relating to under representation of different groups and can develop strategies to ensure that all people have the opportunity in the future to develop and progress in sport. England Hockey requests this data from clubs as part of the annual affiliation process and completing this data accurately enables the club to give an accurate picture to England Hockey on our membership.

BRIDGWATER HOCKEY CLUB PRIVACY NOTICE FOR MEMBERS

We are committed to respecting your privacy. This notice explains how we may use personal information we collect before, during and after your membership with us. This notice applies to you if you have registered to become or are a member of our club. This notice explains how we comply with the law on data protection, what your rights are and for the purposes of data protection we will be the controller of any of your personal information.

References to we, our or us in this privacy notice refer to Bridgwater Hockey Club.

We have not appointed a Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws, but our Data Protection Compliance Manager has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our organisation. Contact details are set out in the "Contacting us" section at the end of this privacy notice.

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT FROM YOU

Depending on the type of membership you register for with us, you may initially provide us with or we may obtain personal information about you, such as information regarding your:

- o personal contact details that allows us to contact you directly such as name, title, email addresses and telephone numbers;
- o date of birth;
- o gender;
- o membership start and end date;
- o records of your interactions with us such as telephone conversations, emails and other correspondence and your instructions to us;
- o records of your attendance at any events hosted by us;
- o images in video and/or photographic form;
- o your marketing preferences so that we know whether and how we should contact you;
- o details of next of kin, family members and emergency contacts;
- o records and assessment of any player rankings, grading or ratings, competition results, details regarding matches attended and performance;
- o any disciplinary and grievance information.

2. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may also collect, store and use the following "special categories" of more sensitive personal information regarding you:

- o information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs and sexual orientation;
- o information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records, medical records and health professional information.

We may not collect all of the above types of special category personal information about you. In relation to the special category personal data that we do process we do so on the basis that it is done so based on your explicit consent.

In the table below we refer to these as the "special category reasons for processing of your personal data".

3. WHERE WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

We typically collect personal information about our members when you apply to become a member of the club via a membership form, or when you correspond with us by e-mail.

If you are providing us with details of next of kin and emergency contacts they have a right to know and to be aware of how what personal information we hold about them, how we collect it and how we use and may share that information. Please share this privacy notice with those of them whom you feel will understand it. They also have the same rights as set out in the "Your rights in relation to personal information" section below.

4. USES MADE OF THE INFORMATION

The table below describes the main purposes for which we process your personal information, the categories of your information involved and our lawful basis for being able to do this.

Purpose	Personal information used	Lawful basis

	information.	We process special category personal data on the basis of the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data” referred to in section 2 above.
To use information about your physical or mental health (including any injuries) or disability status, to ensure your health and safety and to provide appropriate adjustments to our sports facilities.	Health and medical information	We process special category personal data on the basis of the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data” referred to in section 2 above.
For the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring	Name, title, date of birth gender, information about your race or ethnicity and health and medical information	We have a legitimate interest to promote a sports environment that is inclusive, fair and accessible. We process special category personal data on the basis of the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data” referred to in section 2 above.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent.

5. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may share personal information with the following parties:

- Any party approved by you.
- To any governing bodies or regional bodies for the sports covered by our club: to allow them to properly administer the sports on a local, regional and national level.
- Police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

6. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION INTERNATIONALLY

The personal information we collect is not transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union.

7. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR?

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements. Generally, where there is no legal requirement we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of 3 years after your last contact with us or the end of your membership. Exceptions to this rule are:

- Details regarding unsuccessful membership applicants where we hold records for a period of not more than 12 months;
- Information that may be relevant to personal injury or discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after the event.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address. You may be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you by contacting us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

8. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

9. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

10. CONTACTING US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email committee@bridgwaterhc.co.uk
